

FLASHBACK DRAMA

Are you interested in being part of a brand new piece of theatre to be performed in the Leith Festival in June and as part of the Fringe in August?

This devising group is for anyone over 18 with an interest in creating innovative theatre that entertains and challenges.

We have opportunities for those interested in acting, directing, writing or backstage work.

This year we will be continuing working with Strange Town to create a piece of theatre exploring the industrial heritage and changing nature of work in Leith.

When: Monday evenings starting Monday 2nd October 2017

Time: 6.00 – 8.00pm

Where: The Out of the Blue Drill Hall, Dalmeny Street, Edinburgh, EH6 8RG

£7 per session (£4 concession)
